

Situation

- Off-site manure transfers are a critical means of balancing nutrient flows and protecting surface water quality in intensive cattle-feeding regions

- Voluntary adoption of land-application BMPs is vital to ensure that these transactions achieve water-quality goals

Audiences

Manure and Compost
Contractors

Certified
Crop
Advisors

Crop Producers

